MASTERCLASS: FROM REAL TO REEL WITH FILMMAKER FELICIA LOWE
THURSDAY, MARCH 23RD, 12:30 PM-1:45 PM
LIFE SCIENCES SOUTH (LSS)

In this master class, filmmaker Felicia Lowe will discuss the process and art of creating historical documentaries. She will examine the relationship between public policies and personal identity within families and the larger community.

Felicia Lowe is an award winning independent producer, director, and writer.

Co-sponsored by the Department of History, the Center for Asian and Pacific Studies, the Confucius Institute, the Department of Women’s Studies, and the Department of Political Science.