

80TH YEAR ANNIVERSARY – JOIN US IN AN EXPLORATION OF ONE OF WWII'S MOST TRAGIC & CONSEQUENTIAL EVENTS

THE NANJING MASSACRE & ITS LEGACY

DECEMBER 1ST (FRIDAY), 3-5PM – AL 101

WHAT HAPPENED IN NANJING IN 1937?

WHY HAS IT BEEN CALLED “WWII’S FORGOTTEN HOLOCAUST”?

HOW IS IT REMEMBERED & WHAT IS ITS SIGNIFICANCE TODAY?

Featuring --

- Kathryn Edgerton-Tarpley (History)
- Pierre Asselin (History)
- Lei Guang (Political Science)
- Grace Cheng (Political Science)
- Sara Brown (USC Shoah Foundation)

Sponsored by the Department of Political Science, Department of History, the Dwight E. Stanford Chair of US Foreign Relations, the Center for Asian and Pacific Studies, and Phi Alpha Theta.

Contact Grace Cheng at gcheng@sdsu.edu for more information.